RELIGIOUS REVIVAL

SWEEPING TOWARDS THE WEST

Enthusiastic Band of Students from MacMaster to Visit the Leading Centres of Alberta.

Winnipeg, May 6th.—A tidal wave of religious revival is coming west. An enthusiastic band of students from MacMaster University, credited with four thousand conversions already will strike the prairie this month. Among the points to be visited in the western fields are Edmonton, Regina, Red Deer, Calgary, Wetaskiwin and the principal points on the main line.

ONE OF LIFE'S SAD STORIES.

The culmination of one of the saddest tragedies of life occurred yesterday in the burial of Geo. McQuarry. The story connected with this young man and his family is one of deep interest, but at the same time one of the saddest possible. Less than a year ago Mr. McQuarry was living with his parents happy and prospering in the city of Montreal. He had a good position and everything pointed to his success. But unknowingly he had contracted that terrible disease from which there is no escape, consumption. The doctors told him he must come west if he was to prolong his life. In company with his father and youngest brother he came to Edmonton. But his health did not improve and the doomed man gradually grew worse. They were staying for awhile at the home of an old friend, Geo. McLeod on Namayo Ave. but in a short time they removed to the Edmonton Hotel. Here the father and other son securing positions, the sick man was left to himself. Dr. Borchart is claimed advised him to move to the St. Elmo, which he did. He grew worse and worse and his friends Mr. and Mrs. McLeod hearing of his condition went to see him and were horrified to see the condition he was in. It is claimed that he was in the back yard surrounded with filth and garbage sufficient to make a strong man sick to say nothing of the effect it would have upon a person in Mr. McQuarry's condition. The city authorities were called upon and with the aid of many who became interested in the case, he was removed to the northern part of the city, living in a tent surrounded with everything needful until his death last Wednesday. His father was notified last Saturday by telegraph, of his son's condition, but the message did not reach him, as he was 37 miles east of Wetaskiwin until Thursday evening and although a feeble old gentleman of over sixty years he walked this distance into Wetaskiwin that night, arriving here last evening, when he was overcome to hear of his son's burial yesterday afternoon.

It is reported that both a son and daughter have died at their home in Montreal since the father and two boys came west. So that out of what was a large and happy family but two broken hearted parents and a 16 year old boy remain. The boy is employed with Discol's survey party in the north and has not yet heard of his brother's death.

UNOCCUPIED TERRITORY

Over 100,000 of these machines have been sold in the U.S. within the last few years at the same price which is being charged for any other standard typewriter. This proves conclusively that the OLIVER is the very best machine made regardless of price.

As there is now in Montreal a factory devoted exclusively to the manufacture of this machine, it can be bought in Canada for the same price at which it is sold in the U.S. without adding from $25 to $30 to cover duty and charges, as do all the other standard writers.

This should be a very attractive proposition to any purchaser of writing machines.

ALBERTA PIONEER LIFE.

The Toronto Globe publishes the following essay on pioneer life in Alberta, written by a settler at McWasson, a settlement near White Whale Lake, about 35 miles west of Edmonton:

I shall call this the diary of a tenderfoot. Keeping diary is like talking to oneself. Just as crazy, but a shred more dignified. For instance, yesterday when my Indian, Paul John Bearsfoot, caught me muttering away like a lone monkey lost from the tribe, I didn't get back my sense of superiority until I'd called him several kinds of a Cree, and told him to wash his shirt; but let Paul John Nappen alone when I'm doing the same thing with a pen and a bit of paper instead of my tongue, and all I'll have to do is frown, look wise, and pre-occupied. Paul John will vanish—vamoos, White man is at his mysteries. Plainly there is an advantage in a diary. For reasons, I can't air my views in the back yard of my neighbor, or, if he have no mind to speak of, flaunt 'em before his face, I'll jot 'em down. One can always burn the diary.

Little King Stokes was telling us at Calgary how he clung to diary-writing the first year he was out on the Stoke Pogis ranch, fifty-seven miles away from all animate created things, and he wrote all that happened, touched on what he hoped would happen, and, having still time to spare, wrote his views on love and matrimony,—warm views, naturally, seeing that the thermometer registered thirty degrees all that winter; on religion; on pemican as an article of steady diet; on subjects orthodox and otherwise. Then he went off on a round-up in the spring, leaving the diary to hold the fort. Wolfskin met him at the Forks as he was riding home.

"White man's father, mother and a girl with eyes (opening his own wide) up at ranch. Come this morning," he said.

Good heavens, the diary! His mother and sweetheart would attack it greedily. He knew women. He made up his mind not to go a foot nearer Stoke Pogis. He would cut home ties, take to the timber, turn savage and live in a wigwam.

"Any excitement in the house?" he asked anxiously.

"Plenty excitement, not much house. It catch fire last night; go up in smoke."

"Everything? All the contents?"
"Everything." Wolfskin had had dealings with the agent, interpreter, and farm instructor back on the reserve, and knew English well enough to work in a swear word at times.

Stokes was so tickled with the news he hadn't the heart to rebuke him for usurping the white man's privilege. "I tell you, boys," he ended up with, "with that diary up in smoke, I felt that civilization had charms. I was off on a gallop, couldn't get over the ground fast enough." The three sat disconsolately in the opening of Wolfskin's tepee. "Poor homeless boy!" was their greeting, but as I kissed them, I said to myself: "As true as Gospel there's a special Providence which looks after children and fools. This fire proves it."

Of course a man can't always strike luck like that. If all the shucks holding "records" were to go up in smoke the air would be thicker than it is tonight even.

I came up here with the laudable ambition to get rich, grow up with the country, be a leading spirit, school trustee, justice of the peace, even member of parliament.

This was two years ago. I've gotten a little way on the road to wealth. In twelve months I'll get my papers, and write myself owner of the finest homestead which I call Riverdale Park. Not that there is a park—the river is but a creek flowing in from White Whale Lake, but when the frenzy of pride is being called "home" by the three live In-

Persons who helped me build this shack and stable and break the first sod and worm its edge off the reaction had set in in the shape of a genuine old case of homesickness. I need to go out and watch the coyotes slinking past, the gophers sitting in the sun, the cranes creaking after the young prairie chicken, the wild game all aflutter, watch, too, for the black bear which Paul John assured me prowled among the birch and hemlock and try to fancy I was sitting in Riverdale Park, Toronto, on a Sunday afternoon. Hence the name.

As for growing up with the country I'm two full inches taller and a whole stone heavier—not a bad showing. Haven't heard anything of being made J. P. or M. P., but at the school meeting the other night I was nominated for trustee. This might give me the big head, only that I remember there are only only five white men in the section as yet and two of these can't read or write.

The social life is not a strenuous one. My near neighbors are Stony Indians, and as they know little English, and I little Cree we don't do much but make signs. Of an evening I stroll past the lodge of the Medicine Man as he sits at the door with his wife and daughter and sing to exchange a "Howdy do" for a few gutturals, or sit on the grass listening to the lull of Nimrod, the Stony hunter, who refuses to work on the plea that he has a squaw, four young Indians and six dogs of his own. If I'm not too tired I may walk over to the Methodist mission two miles away or down to the agents, to hear him tell just how the G. T. P. is coming to Mesquissit and how soon we'll be rich. It has been a hard day. We started early, and early here means 4 a. m. to break soil and keep at it till nearly dusk, which hung off as long as it could and only settled down about 10 o'clock. This country hasn't any spring night to speak of. By the time you've fired off a gun to silence the coyotes and fought for your life with a buzzing horde of mosquitoes the pale pink streaks of dawn are in the sky. Nature knows her business: long nights would send settlers back east in a hurry. Anybody can stand, say four hours of it.

I went out to the field with Peter Stonefish and Big George—name in full Chief George Firebag. His lodge is just outside my gate, and his sweet prairie flower scrubs, or rather is supposed to scrub, out my house. I've caught her with several things in her grasp, but never with a scrubbing brush.

Paul John was to follow us on Split-the-Wind, his own particular property. As we came back to dinner we passed him. He was standing beside the cayuse like a copper statue, and when I yelled out, "What in thunder are you fooling away time for?" he gave me a child-like smile, and answered, "Heap nice day, he watch the wind blow through the grass." I left him watching the wind. There's no use hurrying an Indian. Leave him free to stop when he's tired, lay off when he has to, and you get good service. I use the words "has to" on purpose. Take a day like this—creeks running, low wash cranberries putting up fresh green, good smells coming from the spruce and hemlock woods, and no "has to" lay off. He is a fisher by nature, a farmer by hard pressure. I'm full of the wind gets too much for him. Just as the school-ars flit from the mission school when the breath of the wild strawberries comes in the windows, so the Indian flits from plough or harrow, or flock. He comes back hungry and happy in a day or two. I find myself thinking that if we must live in these great solitudes it is well to be an Indian. But this is when Paul John's cannons have disagreed with me.

At other times the clause in the Canadian Northwest homestead regulations, which sets forth that "a settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead, is required to live on and homestead six months out of every twelve months for the space of three years" ceases to weigh on me the least. There is a fascination about watching your own growth, getting up its green stalks, the virgin soil dunes you at first, but once conquered it is yielding and generous.

Today I found a violet. Yesterday I heard the soft clucking of a prairie hen, whose full nest is hidden near. The water is babbling in the creek, and White Whale Lake is smiling in the sun.

The spring is here. You know it when you wade through the grass, which is thicker and softer than Ontario grass. The branches are kissing themselves, and playfully kicking holes in each other, all but Split-the-Wind, who stands watching the wind blow maybe, or indulging in a dream of horse-heaven.

Synopsis of Regulations for Disposal of Minerals on Dominion Lands in Manitoba, the North-West Territories and the Yukon Territory.

At least $100 must be expended on the claim each year or paid to the mining recorder in lieu thereof.

The lease's right is confined to the submerged bed or bars of the river below low water mark, and subject to the rights of all persons who have or who may receive entries for bar diggings on bench claims, except in the Saskatchewan river, where the lease may dredge to high water mark on each alternate household.

The lease shall have a dredge in operation within one season from the date of the lease for each five miles, but where a person or company has obtained more than one lease, one dredge for each fifteen miles or fraction, will be sufficient. Dredging in the Yukon Territory—Six leases of five miles each may be granted to a free miner for a term of twenty years, also renewable.

The lease's right is confined to the submerged bed or bars in the river below low water mark, that boundary to be fixed by its position on the first day of August in the year of the date of the lease.

The lease shall have one dredge in operation within two years from the date of the lease, and one dredge for each five miles within six years from such date. Rental, $100 per mile for first year, and $10 per mile for each subsequent year. Royalty same as placer mining.

The person or company staking a claim must hold a free miner's certificate.

The discoverer of a new mine is entitled to a claim of 1500 feet in length, and if the party consists of two, 1500 feet altogether, on the output of which no royalty shall be charged, the rest of the party ordinarly claims only.

Entry fee, $10. Royalty at the rate of two and one-half per cent on the value of the gold shipped from the Yukon Territory to be paid to the Comptroller.

No free miner shall receive a grant of more than one mining claim on each separate river, creek or gulch, but the same miner may hold any number of claims by purchase, and free miners may work their claims in partnership by filing notices and paying fee of $2.00. A claim may be abandoned and another obtained on the same creek, gulch or river by giving notice and paying a fee.

Work must be done on a claim each year to the value of at least $250.

A certificate that work has been done must be obtained each year; if not, the claim shall be deemed abandoned, and open to occupation and entry by a free miner.

Brief items from many sources tell the story of the day's events.

SNOWING IN WINNIPEG.

Winnipeg, May 5.—A by-law for borrowing $100,000 on debentures was passed by the surprisingly small figure of 276 to 24. The weather was execrable, it snowing and blowing fiercely all day and night. This, however, hardly accounts for the gathy.

NOW FOR CONTORTION.

Montreal, May 5.—Quebec Conservatives have decided to contest Leves for the House of Commons, left vacant by the death of Demers. Hon. R. E. Pelletier will be the Conservative candidate and will make the school question the issue.

ST. LAWRENCE NAVIGATION.

Montreal, May 5.—There are about 15 steamers in the river below Montreal.

GRADUAL CHANGE OF TROOPS.

Halifax, May 5.—The report that the 50th Royal Regiment of gunnery artillery would be sent to England is unfounded. As the time of the men expires, they will be replaced by men of a Canadian regiment and the change will be therefore gradual.

ONE of the advantages of the Cuban tobacco I procure, is that it is almost entirely cured by nature.

The climate is so hot that the tobacco sweats naturally—the leaf is ripened uniformly and the subsequent process of curing favorably promoted.

With the expert attention the leaf receives in Cuba it is pretty thoroughly cured and preserved—and its fragrant aroma developed by having been slowly fermented. I allow it to remain in my warehouse from 2 to 3 years, until it has sufficiently aged and has that mellowness that age alone can give. It takes a lot of study and experience to know when Havana tobacco is just right. Florida tobacco is always just right.

Binder Twine Prices.

Ottawa, May 1.—The government has fixed the price of penitentiary binder twine for 1905 at 12 1/2 cents for pure Manitoba, 600 feet to the pound; 10 1/4 cents for mixed Manitoba, 650 feet to the pound; New Zealand 450 feet to the pound, 9c. The prices are to farmers only, and they are notified the supply is limited and advised to order at once. The warden of the penitentiary advises farmers to club and buy car lots. A reduction of $10 a ton is allowed on car lots.

WESTERN CANADA WEATHER.

Omaha "Nebraska Farmer," April 27: It takes a long time to uproot an erroneous impression. Because western Canada is north of the northern states, it has been natural to assume that it must be colder, but it is a fact that spring comes as early at Edmonton, 350 miles north of the boundary, as it does in the latitude of Minneapolis, St. Paul, and seeding began in Alberta and western Assiniboia in the last part of February this year. The Chicago Daily News of March 3, quoted some of the reports of early seeding in the neighborhood of Medicine Hat and Lethbridge, and editorially commented on them as follows:

"The American public's impressions regarding the arctic terrors of the Manitoba climate are so deep-seated and wide-spread that a few painful examples like those cited above can be contemplated without a sense of shock. It seems in the severe climate of Medicine Hat that the farmers cannot begin sowing their crops until the last of February. It appears also that the Medicine Hat temperature has been running as low as from 40 to 60 degrees above zero, instead of from 30 to 40 degrees as in this region."

The winters of western Canada are severe but they are not uncomfortable, because the cold is dry and continued, there is no slough, muddy weather. The days are for the most part, bright and calm, and it is a pleasure to be out of doors.

A TORONTO MAN TRIES SOMETHING NEW AND IS DELIGHTED. FEELS LIKE A BOY.

Mr. M. N. Dafeo, Manager The Dustless Brush Co., 29 Colborne St., Toronto, is telling his friends how he found health after years of illness and pain. He says: "I have been a great sufferer from Dyspepsia for many years. I have been treated by local doctors and have taken nearly all the advertised remedies with only temporary relief, if any at all, but since using Anti-Pill I can eat anything the same as a boy. I have been taking one Anti-Pill at bedtime for the past three months, and find they regulate both stomach and bowels. My old time vigor has returned, so that my spirits are buoyant and temper normal. As a result of this unhopful experience I am in duty bound to give all credit to this wonderful remedy, Anti-Pill."

TRADERS' RATES.

The secretary of the Board of Trade has received the following letter from the Assistant General Freight Agent of the C. P. R. at Calgary. It is highly desirable that parties interested should at once take steps to have their names placed on the traders' list, if not already on, and avoid unnecessary annoyance.

"We have had in the past a great many claims covering the difference between traders and standard tariff rates, the result of consignments at country points omitting to advise our agents to have their names placed on the list with necessary information showing they are entitled to same. This neglect has resulted in a great many unnecessary overcharges and claims. I could respectfully request the wholesale trade to advise customers that we cannot entertain such claims in future, and to avoid same by advising either to their local freight agent or myself so that any change of firm or addition to list can be recorded so that traders rate can be protected on shipments entitled to same.

Yours truly,

GEO. H. SMITH, A.G.F.A."

All merchants and others who are entitled to buy goods from wholesale houses, are entitled to have their names on the traders' list. This enables traders using any C. & E. shipping point to receive shipments from Edmonton jobbing houses at traders' rate of freight, which is materially below standard rates.

The Canadian North-West Homestead Regulations.

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, excepting 8 and 36, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age to the extent of one quarter section, or 160 acres, more or less.

ENTRY.—Entry may be made personally in the district in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situate, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10.00 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES.—A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act and the amendments thereto to perform the conditions connected therewith under one of the following plans.

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) or any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the conditions of the Act, reside upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent, may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If a settler has obtained a patent for his homestead, or a certificate for the issue of such patent countersigned in the manner prescribed by this Act, and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

(4) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of Clauses 2, 3 or 4, must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with building for their accommodation, and have besides 80 acres substantially fenced.

The privilege of a second entry as restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd June, 1898.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law, is liable to have his entry cancelled, and the land may be again thrown open for entry.

Application for patent should be made at the end of three years before the local agent, sub-agent, or Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, of his intention to do so.

Information.—Newly arrived immigrants will receive at the Immigration Office, in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Land Office, in Manitoba, or of the Northwest Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands, in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba, or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.

W. W. CORY,

Deputy Minister of the Interior.

N. B.—In addition to Free Grant Lands to which the regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable land are available for lease or purchase from railroad and other corporations and private firms in Western Canada.
